Lou's Food Bar - Denver, Colorado

Located right in the heart of North Denver's Sunnyside neighborhood is Lou's Food Bar. Formerly, Ron and Dan's Keg Lounge, Lou's Food Bar is a complete transformation from a time-honored Denver dive bar into a charming American bistro with French influences. A completely new kitchen addition was designed on the north side of the rectangular-shaped building while the south side features a new double entry with a traditional vestibule. Inside, the dining room features a combination of booths, circular banquettes and two and four top tables. The original bar has been retained and spans the length of the restaurant and seats up to 25 people. Parallel to the bar sits a charcuterie which sets the mood for the quaint, unique gastro pub. Lou's Food Bar is now open for business and is located at 1851 W. 38th Avenue. Visit www.lousfoodbar.com for more information.

project profile

bb's kitchen - Aspen, Colorado

bb's kitchen is now open! The new Aspen restaurant features a full bar, outdoor seating on the patio and a welcoming fireplace in the lounge. Serving up high quality, home-cooking in a sophisticated yet casual setting, the design matches the food with an eclectic and modern aesthetic. Once the home of the David Floria and 212 galleries in the Aspen Grove building, bb's kitchen features a main dining area comprised of comfortable yet elegant booth and banquette seating in warm deep red tones. Adjacent to the dining room is a full bar that mirrors the casual/elegant atmosphere of the dining room. The outdoor patio takes full advantage of Aspen Mountain views. Additional interior details include rich wood paneling around the bar accented by grey glass mirror backslashes. The mood of the bar and dining room is established with simple, single light pendants and large glass windows beyond ensuring that the feel is perfect for breakfast, lunch or dinner. The seating arrangement provides flexibility for large parties or smaller groups. Adjacent to the kitchen space is a lounge with a dedicated bar. Modern furnishings throughout the lounge area include plush chairs, leather ottomans and contemporary cocktail tables. bb's kitchen is located at 525 E. Cooper Avenue on the second level. Be sure to check out the new restaurant.
